Late in 2012 we added Amanda Southwood Willard as our new Section Editor for Sea Turtles. To bolster our ability to review manuscripts on these magnificent animals, we are happy to announce the addition of three new Associate Editors:

T. Todd Jones, is with NOAA, National Marine Fisheries Service Pacific Islands Fisheries Science Center, Honolulu, Hawaii. Besides studies on ecology and conservation of sea turtles, he has expertise in physiological ecology. Todd received his PhD (2009) from the University of British Columbia.

Katherine L. Mansfield is at the Cooperative Institute for Marine and Atmospheric Studies, Florida International University. Recipient of EPA Science To Achieve Results (STAR) Fellowship, National Research Council Postdoctoral Research Fellow, and Post-Doctoral Associate, Rosenstiel School of Marine and Atmospheric Science, University of Miami. Kate earned her PhD (2006) from the Virginia Institute of Marine Sciences, College of William and Mary, Virginia.

Erin E. Seney is a Marine and Fisheries Ecologist, Erin Seney Consulting, LLC, Woodbridge, Virginia. Earlier, she was an AAAS Science and Technology Policy Fellow at NOAA (Maryland) and NSF (Virginia). She has a background in satellite telemetry and diet analysis. She obtained her PhD (2008) from Texas A&M University.

Please join the editorial staff in welcoming them to the HCB family!
